REPORT
OF THE
SUPERINTENDING SCHOOL COMMITTEE,
Of the Town of Plaistow,
FOR THE YEAR ENDING MARCH 1, 1880.

---

DISTRICT NO. 1.

H. H. CHENEY, Prudential Committee.

MRS. L. E. WELCH, Teacher.

Mrs. Welch managed this school with her usual energy and ability. Her pupils were ambitious, prompt and industrious.

The closing exercises were highly entertaining, and it was wonderful to see how much had been accomplished by scholars young in years and few in numbers. The first term the whole school with the exception of two pupils were not absent or tardy one half day. Second term:—Annie Kelleher, Minnie Kelleher, Katie Kelleher, Lizzie Kelleher, Dannie Kelleher, Eugene Arnold, Thomas Dupont, Mattie Seaver, Charlie Denoncour, Ida Seaver.

DISTRICT NO. 2.

ISAAC H. POLLARD, Prudential Committee.

MISS CORA B. POLLARD, Teacher.

This school had a larger number of pupils than the year previous, and appeared well. A very pleasant and harmonious feeling seemed to exist between teacher and scholars.

Writing had received special attention, and there is evidence, in all our schools, that this neglected exercise is again receiving some of that attention which its importance requires.

Pupils not absent or tardy:—1st term, Nellie Hadley, Mary Hadley, Rosa Harris, Dora Page, Clara Page, Hannah Kelley, Georgie Gates, Nattie Kelley, Georgie Kelley, Ashley George, Charlie Gates, Henry Williams, Bertie Williams. 2nd term, Lottie Pollard, Eliza Kelley, Georgie Gates, Hannah Kelley, Georgie Kelley, Nattie Kelley, Archie Williams, Bertie Williams, Henry Williams.

DISTRICT NO. 3.

FRANKLIN BURNHAM, Prudential Committee.

MISS LOUISA M. POLLARD, Teacher.

This school is elephantine in size, when compared with the others in town, requiring a large amount of energy, tact and patience in its management. These qualities are possessed in an eminent degree by Miss Pollard, and the school year has been a very successful one. A large number of friends were present at the closing examination, and the exercises were highly creditable to both teacher and pupils. The improved condition of the school-house has had a favorable influence upon the school.

Pupils not absent or tardy:—1st term, Homer Hutchinson, George Baker, George Drew, Frank Quimby, Bertie Huntress, Henry Pollard, Edwin Nichols, John Tozier, Albert Duffill, Fred Drew, Arthur Pollard, Chester Burnham, John Pollard, Orah Tucker, Emma Peaslee, Nellie Sherman, Fannie Sleeper, Henry Sleeper, Maud Sleeper May George, Carrie Hills, Harry Seaver, John Duffill. 2nd term, Albert Duffill, Mattie Davis, Orah Tucker. 3d term, Bertie Williams, Arthur Williams, Homer Hutchinson, John Tozier, Albert Duffill, Fred Drew, Orah Tucker, Mattie Davis, Eugene Davis, Harry Sleeper, Maud Sleeper, John Duffill, Joseph Hills, Carrie Cummings.

DISTRICT NO. 4.

CHARLES DAY, Prudential Committee.

FRANK D. PEASLEE, Teacher.

The district was fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Peaslee the second year. The discipline was good and the scholars were very industrious. Good progress had been made, in study, and improvement was particularly noted in Grammar and Arithmetic.

Pupils not absent or tardy:—1st term, Adah F. Carleton, Katie M. Carleton, Gertie Simonds, Willie F. Hill, George W. Lamson, Lemuel P. Thompson. 2nd term, Adah F. Carleton, Katie M. Carleton, Annie B. Hill, Gertie Simonds, Harry N. Carleton, John W. Carleton, Willie F. Hill, Harry L. Shute, Perley A. Shute, Lemuel P. Thompson.

It will be seen by reference to the report of the different schools, that a much larger number of pupils than usual have been added to the "Roll of Honor," showing a marked improvement in daily attendance, and also in being present at the opening of the school. This is highly encouraging to all interested.

We should be glad to see written exercises in spelling occupying a larger share of the attention of older pupils, believing as we do in the intrinsic excellence and utility of this method. Respect'y submitted,

ANNIE L. DOW,

Supt. School Committee
